SPRING COLLECTION

EXPERIENCE EXCEPTIONAL WINES THAT DELIVER THE VERY ESSENCE OF SEPPELT

October already! Where has the year gone? As I eagerly await the forthcoming vintage, the return to longer days gives me time to reflect on this wonderful year so far.

2018 was a strong vintage and I am really happy with the ensuing wines – especially our Riesling, which saw a very good yield. You'll experience its beautifully floral expression in the Drumborg Collection.

It has been a very successful year on the show circuit, and your packs include three trophy winners – 2013 Salinger Vintage Cuvée (which also hauled in five gold medals), NV Original Sparkling Shiraz and the 2017 Drumborg Pinot Noir. The critics have really taken to these wines and I know you will too.

I am really excited to share many new wines since our last release –all have scored 91+ points, except for our just released 2017 Pinot Meunier, which is yet to hit the critics' lips. Watch this space. Speaking of critics, Tyson Stelzer named our Original Sparkling Shiraz NV as Best Sparkling Under $30 2018 in a wonderful reflection of our sparkling pedigree – last year he gave the same honour to our 2013 Salinger Vintage Cuvée.

The Drumborg selection includes a very special museum release of our 2011 Riesling while red lovers will be treated to our limited 2016 St. Peters Shiraz – as Mike Bennie said is “...quite addictive to drink, indeed.” No matter your palate, there are five new inclusions this release so plenty of new wines to explore.

I hope you enjoy all that the Custodians of Seppelt journey entails.
